As of 1 March 2009, Atlas Seistech and Atlas DOOR will join forces to create one of the largest hydrographic and seismic recruitment agencies. Atlas DOOR has offices in Rotterdam, Malaysia and Canada, and will trade under the name of Atlas Seistech, a member of the Atlas Services Group.

Atlas seistech and Atlas DOOR have worked in the recruitment market for more than 27 years. The companies supply all the major and small independent survey companies and currently deploy approximately 200 specialists working worldwide in the hydrographic, marine and land seismic industry.

In addition, Atlas Seistech will be looking to hold future training courses in software packages for the hydrographic and seismic industry.
